

Biblical Grounds for Divorce

There absolutely are grounds for divorcing a narcissist. While the Bible doesn't actually use the word narcissist, they do use the words insolent pride, selfish, liar, foolish, heart of stone, lovers of themselves, boastful, abusive, without love, whitewashed tombs, and many more. The Bible also doesn't specifically talk about a narcissistic marriage, but it does say that people are to have nothing to do with these people (2 Timothy 3). You cannot stay married to someone you have nothing to do with.
